

Vision Boards

Posted on December 31,2017 by nmcreatrix

Met last night with my SPIN women's group. We did our Annual Vision Board/ Card Drawing. A very good time was had by all, and some amazing vision boards for 2018 were created. Here are mine (two sided)

I am considering either a 8 day Paris trip or 8 days in South Africa... and this board did not help me make up my mind. And there is a 7 day European river cruise. Don't know how so many friends of mine are offering trips in 2018, are we trying to escape America?

My word for the year is CREATIVITY and this reinforces that. I always love the process of vision boards...
