

Happy Birthday to me...

Posted on February 19,2018 by admin

Tanishka, an astrologer that I follow on the interwebs, posted this about ME (well it does apply). It is from a much longer post that you can see HERE

Feb 19 - March 21 Sun in Pisces The sun's shift into Pisces for a month will evoke either our inner victim or our inner mystic, depending on how much we reflect & seeking meaning to understand the events in our lives & their inherent lessons. Ruled by Neptune, the planet of sleep, dreams & fantasy our challenge is to work with our dream messages & read the signs being offered by Great Mystery or we risk operating in a sleep state & escaping into fantasy to deal with the pain & suffering caused by our unconscious choices.

I need the inner mystic, not the inner victim!
