

As my birthday nears...

Posted on February 21,2018 by admin

I always seem to reconnect with my inner child. Tuniska, The Moon Woman says:

To reconnect with your inner child find a photo of yourself at a young age & telepathically talk to your younger self & ask questions to gauge the current needs of your inner child which underpin some of your unconscious behaviours. You may also like to invite your inner child to draw with your left hand to express themselves. With sun in Aries, the sign of our inner boy & moon in Taurus, the sign of our inner girl – this is a great day to do something fun!

To see the entire post ( I have a LOT of Pisces friends who this may apply to)HERE Sounds like I need to do something FUN today but it is raining... Oh well...
